

Islam And The Arab World: Faith, People, Culture

Islam simply means to achieve peace — peace with God, peace within oneself, and peace with the creations of God — through wholly giving oneself to God and accepting His guidance.

Islam is not a new faith. Muslims believe that it is the same truth that God revealed through all His prophets to every people.

For a fifth of the world's population, Islam is not just a personal religion, but a complete way of life.

Who are Muslims?

Muslims come from all races, nationalities and cultures across the globe. They have varied customs, languages, foods, and dress; even the way they practice Islam may differ. Yet they all consider themselves to be Muslim.

Less than 20% of Muslims live in the Arab world; a sixth are found in Sub-Saharan Africa; and the world's largest Muslim community is in Indonesia. Substantial parts of Asia, and almost all the Central Asian republics, are Muslim. Significant Muslim minorities are found in China, India, Russia, Europe, the United States, Canada, and South America.
