THE AMERICAN PLACE THEATRE presents

Literature to Life®

A Staged Performance of The Kite Runner

by Khaled Hosseini

Adapted from the first novel about contemporary Afghanistan to be written in English, this performance, employing the author's actual text and incorporating original Afghan music, dramatically portrays the relationship between two boys: Amir, a privileged Pashtun; and Hassan, a Hazara servant. Surprising events occur against the backdrop of 1970s Afghanistan in turmoil.

LITERATURE TO LIFE. The American Place Theatre's performance-based literacy program, presents professionally staged verbatim adaptations of significant American literary works, giving students a new form of access to literature. Literature to Life has already provided a catalyst for learning and self-expression to more than 400,000 students nationwide. The recipient of 16 Audelces and more than 30 Obies, The American Place Theatre, now in its 49th season, is critically acclaimed as a birthing place for artistic endeavors at the crossroad of literature and live performance for 48 years.
